Article I

Membership

The following is an abridged article from the Alpha Chi Rho National Constitution. For the complete article on membership, refer to the text of the Constitution.

Section 1

Composition

A resident chapter is an organization formed and maintained in accordance with the constitution, bylaws, and codes of the national fraternity of Alpha Chi Rho, comprising all the resident Brothers of all chapters and such graduate Brothers thereof as assume the obligation of resident membership.

Section 2

Eligibility

- A. No person is eligible for membership in Alpha Chi Rho unless he is an undergraduate or is pursuing some postgraduate course, or is a member of the faculty or administration at the institution at which a resident chapter is located, or is a graduate member of a local society chartered as a chapter of Alpha Chi Rho. Henceforth there shall be no initiation of a person as an honorary member of Alpha Chi Rho.
- B. No person who has been expelled from the Fraternity shall again become a member thereof, except as provided in section 38 of the disciplinary code of the Fraternity.
- C. No member of another national social college fraternity is eligible to membership in Alpha Chi Rho, and no Brother in Alpha Chi Rho shall join any other national social college fraternity. The national council has power to regulate membership of the Brothers in honorary, professional, class and local societies or fraternities.

Election

A resident chapter may adopt by an amendment to its bylaws such regulations as it deems necessary to govern the tentative pledging of members. However, any man eligible to membership shall become a Postulant only upon the following conditions:

- A. That his name be brought to a vote at a council deemed appropriate by the Brotherhood. The normal procedure of waiting a week for a motion of bids may be omitted.
- B. That open ballot be taken, each Brother who may vote negatively stating his reasons for so doing.
- C. That, if possible, the vote of every resident Brother not in Bad Standing absent from the council at which the balloting is held be obtained by the President within three days after council; every Brother who has not voted at the council or within one week shall be counted as voting affirmatively.
- D. That the election be unanimous, or in the event that one negative vote be cast, the resident chapter may annul such negative vote by a three-fourths ($3/4$) vote of all the resident Brothers. If two or more negative votes are cast, then he will not be eligible for membership.

Section 4

Procedure

- A. Objection to a candidate may be based upon a violation of any one of the landmarks or by a Brothers sincere conviction that he would be unable to live with the candidate on brotherly terms. However, an unworthy and insincere use of this latter objection may be construed as unbrotherly conduct and may be punished by chapter disciplinary action as provided in the disciplinary code of the Fraternity.
- B. Any Brother in attendance can call for a judgment of a Brothers sincerity in casting a negative vote. Said Brother must leave the meeting during discussion. The sincerity of a Brothers vote can be annulled by 85% vote of the Brothers in attendance.
- C. Any Brother can request a re-vote of a persons eligibility for membership up to the council meeting just prior to Postulancy.
- D. A Brother convinced that he erred in voting against a candidate may rescind such vote by stating so at a regular council of the chapter. Such action shall be entered in the minutes. A Brother having cast a negative vote as a resident, who has since become a graduate Brother, may rescind his negative vote by stating so in writing to the president. An unrescinded negative vote shall stand as long as the Brother who cast the negative vote lives.
- E. The president shall rule on all other matters of procedure relating to bidding and balloting in each chapter including formal ballots, provided such ruling does not conflict with provisions of this constitution.
- F. A chapter, by majority vote of council, may depledge a Postulant at any time before his initiation. This privilege should be exercised if it is clear that the Postulant will not become a true Brother. A depledging will be considered a motion and must sit a week before being voted on, except during pre-initiation week.
- G. The Ritual Officer shall administer the Exoteric examination, which shall be given to the Postulants before the initiation. In the absence of the ritual officer, the examination shall be administered by the chaplain, or by the Sergeant-at-Arms in the chaplains absence.
- H. The question in the initiation ceremony relating to the fitness of the Postulant refers only to procedure in preparing him for initiation; i.e., election, instruction, and examination, and not to his character. Objections to character must be made in full statements in council at the time of formal balloting before a candidate becomes a Postulant, or as provided in paragraph 6 of this section.
